Investment Strategy	In line with its objective, the investment strategy of the Fund is to invest in a diversified portfolio of Islamic CIS that will provide capital growth through exposure into global markets. To offer investment diversification, the selection of Islamic CIS will be made based on the geographical and asset class focus to broaden the investment reach. Through its investment into Islamic CIS, the Fund will provide you with access into Shariah-compliant equities listed in global markets, as well as access into Shariah-compliant fixed income instruments such as sukuk, Islamic money market instruments and Islamic deposits, issued globally. We will look towards growth portfolio by holding optimal exposure in Islamic CIS that invest into both Shariah-compliant equities and Shariah-compliant fixed income instruments respectively. Exposure into Shariah-compliant equities are generally considered to be able to provide higher returns as compared to Shariah-compliant fixed income instruments thus exposing you to relatively higher risk that comes with Shariah-compliant equity investments. However, the Fund will also have exposure in Shariah-compliant fixed income instruments, which are generally considered to be of lower risk, and the optimal allocation is aimed at managing the overall volatility of the Fund. We may place the uninvested portion of the Fund in liquid assets such as Islamic money market instruments and/or Islamic deposits. However, we may also take temporary defensive positions that may be inconsistent with the Fund’s principal strategy by holding up to all of the Fund’s NAV in Islamic money market instruments and/or Islamic deposits in attempting to respond to adverse conditions that could negatively impact the financial markets. Islamic Derivatives The Fund may employ Islamic derivatives such as Islamic foreign currency forwards, Islamic cross currency swaps and other Islamic derivatives that are approved by the Shariah Adviser for hedging purposes. These instruments may be used to hedge the principal and/or the returns of the foreign-currency denominated investments back to the base currency of the Fund. While the hedging strategy will assist with mitigating the potential foreign exchange losses by the Fund, any potential foreign exchange gains from the hedging strategy will be capped as well.

The Fund is a growth fund-of-funds that invests a portfolio of Islamic CIS.

The Fund's returns would, to a great extent, be linked to the performance of the global sukuk market, as well as Islamic global equity market. Please note that the Fund does not provide a guarantee on capital contributed nor does it guarantee a fixed rate of return.

KEY RISKS

6. What are the key risks associated with this product?

General Risks

- Fund Management Risk – This risk refers to our day-to-day management of the Fund which will impact the performance of the Fund. For example, our investment decisions as a result of an incorrect view of the market or any non-compliance with internal policies, investment mandate, the Deed, relevant law or guidelines due to factors such as human error, fraud, dishonesty or weaknesses in operational process and systems, may adversely affect the performance of the Fund.

* At our discretion, we may reduce the transaction value and Units, including for transactions made via digital channels, subject to terms and conditions disclosed in the respective channels.

- Inflation Risk – This is the risk that your investment in the Fund may not grow or generate income at a rate that keeps pace with inflation. This would reduce your purchasing power even though the value of the investment in monetary terms has increased.
- Financing Risk – This risk occurs when you take a financing to finance your investment. The inherent risk of investing with financed money includes you being unable to service the financing payments. In the event Units are used as collateral, you may be required to top-up your existing instalment if the prices of Units fall below a certain level due to market conditions. Failing which, the Units may be sold at a lower NAV per Unit as compared to the NAV per Unit at the point of purchase towards settling the financing.
- Operational Risk – This risk refers to the possibility of a breakdown in our internal controls and policies. The breakdown may be a result of human error, system failure or fraud where our employees collude with one another. This risk may cause monetary loss and/or inconvenience to you. We will regularly review our internal policies and system capability to mitigate this risk. Additionally, we maintain a strict segregation of duties to mitigate instances of fraudulent practices amongst our employees.
- Liquidity risk – Liquidity risk refers to two scenarios. The first is where an investment cannot be sold due to unavailability of a buyer for that investment. The second scenario exists where the investment, by its nature, is thinly traded. This will have the effect of causing the investment to be sold below its fair value which would adversely affect the NAV of the Fund and subsequently the value of Unit Holders' investments in the Fund.
- Suspension of repurchase request risk – Having considered the best interests of Unit Holders, the repurchase requests by the Unit Holders may be subject to suspension due to exceptional circumstances, where the market value or fair value of a material portion of the Fund's assets cannot be determined. Such exceptional circumstances may occur when, amongst others, the Islamic CIS that make up material portion of the NAV of the Fund suspend the dealings* and the inability to repatriate the proceeds of the redemptions of the shares or units of the Islamic CIS arising from the regulatory restrictions and/or foreign exchange controls imposed by the authorities in respective jurisdictions. In such case, Unit Holders will not be able to redeem their Units and will be compelled to remain invested in the Fund for a longer period of time. Hence, their investments will continue to be subject to the risks inherent to the Fund.
 - * The Manager may consider suspending the Fund when multiple Islamic CIS (which make up material portion of the Fund's NAV) that the Fund invests in suspend the dealings under circumstances, amongst others, as follows:
 - (i) Should redemption applications by investors of the Islamic CIS exceeds 10% of the net asset value of the Islamic CIS on any dealing day, the management company of the Islamic CIS may in its absolute discretion defer such redemption applications; and
 - (ii) When substantial portion of the Islamic CIS's investments is suspended or restricted for trading that subsequently affects the valuation of the Islamic CIS.

Specific Risks

Specific risks relating to the Fund are as below:

- Islamic CIS Risk – Any adverse effect on the Islamic CIS which the Fund is investing in will impact the NAV of the Fund. For example, the respective Islamic CIS may underperform its benchmarks due to poor market conditions and as a result, the NAV of the Fund will be adversely affected as the performance of the Fund is dependent on the performance of the respective Islamic CIS. In addition, any mismanagement of the Islamic CIS or poor decisions taken on the Islamic CIS may adversely affect the NAV of the Islamic CIS and hence the Fund.
- Credit And Default Risk – Credit risk relates to the creditworthiness of the issuers of the Islamic money market instruments and the Financial Institutions where the Islamic deposits are placed (hereinafter referred to as "investment") and their expected ability to make timely payment of profit and/or principal. Any adverse situations faced by the issuer and/or Financial Institution may impact the value as well as liquidity of the investment. In the case of rated investment, this may lead to a credit downgrade. Default risk relates to the risk of an issuer and/or Financial Institution either defaulting on payments or failing to make payments in a timely manner which will in turn adversely affect the value of the investment. This could adversely affect the value of the Fund.
- Profit Rate Risk – Islamic money market instruments are subject to profit rate fluctuations. Generally, movement in profit rates affects the prices of Islamic money market instruments inversely. For example, when profit rates rise, prices of Islamic money market instruments will fall. The fluctuations of the prices of Islamic money market instruments will also have an impact on the NAV of the Fund. This risk can largely be eliminated by holding Islamic money market instruments until their maturity. We also manage profit rate risk by considering each Islamic money market instruments' sensitivity to profit rate changes. When profit rates are expected to increase, the Fund would then likely seek to switch to Islamic money market instruments that are less sensitive to profit rate changes. For investments into Islamic deposits, the fluctuations in the profit rates will not affect the placement of Islamic deposits but will result in the opportunity loss by the Fund if the placement of Islamic deposits is made at lower profit rate.
- Currency Risk – As the investments of the Fund may be denominated in currencies other than the base currency of the Fund, any fluctuation in the exchange rate between the base currency of the Fund and the currencies in which the investments are denominated may have an impact on the value of these investments. You should note that any gains or losses arising from the fluctuation in the exchange rate may further increase or decrease the returns of the investment.
- Related Party Transaction Risk – The Fund may invest in AIIMAN's Islamic CIS and may also have dealings with parties related to AIIMAN. Nevertheless, it is our policy that all transactions with related parties are to be executed on terms which are best available to the Fund and which are not less favourable to the Fund than an arms-length transaction between independent parties.

- Country Risk – Investments of the Fund in any countries may be affected by changes in the economic and political climate, restriction on currency repatriation or other developments in the law or regulations of the countries in which the Fund invests in. For example, the deteriorating economic condition of such countries may adversely affect the value of the investments undertaken by the Fund in those affected countries. This in turn may cause the NAV of the Fund to fall.

Specific risks relating to the Islamic CIS in which the Fund invests in are as below:

- Shariah-compliant stock specific risk – Prices of a particular Shariah-compliant stock may fluctuate in response to the circumstances affecting individual companies such as adverse financial performance, news of a possible merger or loss of key personnel of a company. Any adverse price movements of such Shariah-compliant stocks will adversely affect the performance of the Islamic CIS.
- Credit And Default Risk – Credit risk relates to the creditworthiness of the issuers of the sukuk or Islamic money market instruments and the Financial Institutions where the Islamic deposits are placed (hereinafter referred to as “investment”) and their expected ability to make timely payment of profit and/or principal. Any adverse situations faced by the issuer and/or Financial Institution may impact the value as well as liquidity of the investment. In the case of rated investment, this may lead to a credit downgrade. Default risk relates to the risk of an issuer and/or the Financial Institution either defaulting on payments or failing to make payments in a timely manner which will in turn adversely affect the value of the investment.
- Profit Rate Risk – This risk refers to the impact of profit rate changes on the valuation of sukuk or Islamic money market instruments (hereinafter referred to as “investment”). When profit rates rise, the investment prices generally decline and this may lower the market value of the investment. The reverse may apply when profit rates fall. For investments in Islamic deposits, the fluctuations in the profit rates will not affect the placement of Islamic deposits but will result in the opportunity loss by the Fund if the placement of Islamic deposits is made at the lower profit rate.

Note: Please refer to the Prospectus on further detail of each risk.

It is important to note that events affecting the investments cannot always be foreseen. Therefore, it is not possible to protect investments against all risks. You are recommended to read the whole Prospectus to assess the risks associated with the Fund. If necessary, you should consult your professional adviser(s) for a better understanding of the risks.
